The Franklin Square Civic Association was formed in 2016 and works toward enhancing the quality of life in our town.

We invite you to join the Franklin Square Civic Association and become active in helping to keep Franklin Square a great place to live.

Joining will help our organization by supporting our efforts for our community. You can be active by attending our meetings or joining one of our committees, but that is entirely up to you. Attendance is not necessary. You will be kept informed of Upcoming Events in our community by receiving a weekly email.

Why should you join? Please visit our website fsqcivic.org, then under the membership drop down, click on “Why Join The FSCA”.
